User Story

I want to be able to view all admission information clearly. When I open the admission website, the system should display the registration requirements, steps, and important dates in one place. The system should organize the information so that it is easy to understand and not spread across many pages. In every step, the system should guide me clearly so I do not get confused while preparing my application.